Engagement Ring Buying Tips

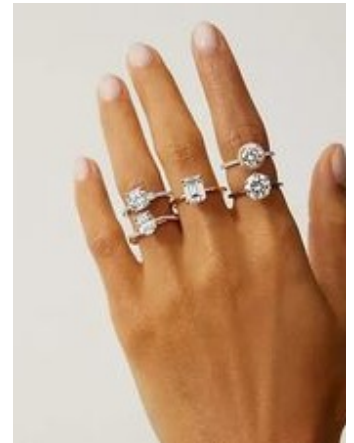

There are several things to keep in mind when you're shopping for an engagement ring. It's important to know your partner's style, their ring size and the 4Cs of diamonds. Many people think they need to spend three months of their salary on an engagement ring, but this is not a real rule. Instead, you should focus on choosing a ring that best fits your partner and your budget. Our experts have put together additional tips to help you choose the perfect ring.

Whether you'd like to design your own solitaire ring, pick a preset halo design or choose the exact gemstone for your ring, our online engagement ring catalog has your fit. You can shop by price, material, best sellers, style, and more. Learn more about some of our most popular engagement ring types below.

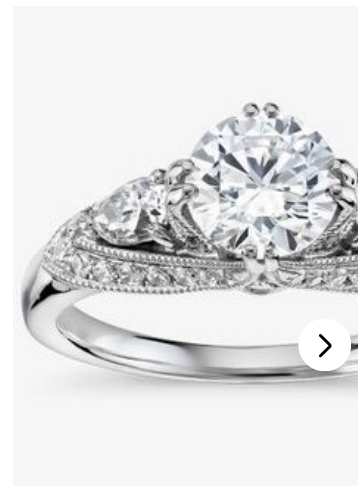

SOLITAIRE

Timeless and traditional, a diamond solitaire engagement ring highlights your center stone in classic style.

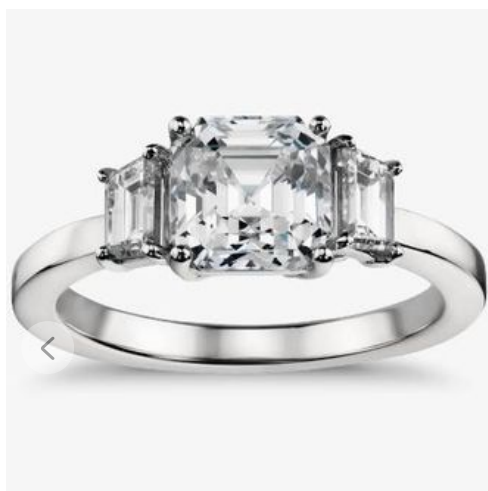

HALO

Frame your center stone with a sparkling single or double diamond halo, including designs with fancy shapes.

VINTAGE - INSPIRED

A vintage-inspired engagement ring offers you heirloom-looks with custom milgrain to hand-engraving.

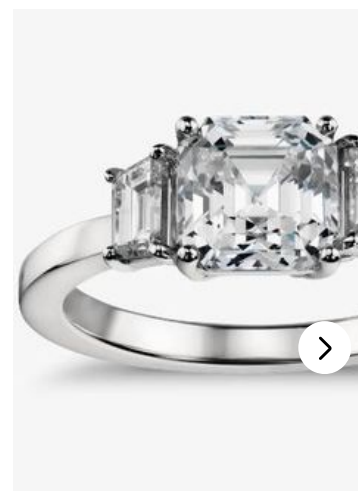

DIAMOND SIDESTONE

Diamond sidestones add extra sparkle, and come in stunning options like delicate pavé and tapered baguettes.

GEMSTONE RINGS

When you're looking for a unique option, a gemstone engagement ring adds a beautiful pop of color to your style.

THREE-STONE

A three-stone engagement ring features a diamond or gemstone sidestone on either side of your center stone.
